

What Americans Need to Know about Israel-Palestine

Roots of conflict. Prospects for peace.

Dr. Norman Finkelstein

www.normanfinkelstein.com

Dr. Norman G. Finkelstein is a professor of political science at DePaul University in Chicago. The U.S. born son of Holocaust survivors, Finkelstein is known for his meticulous, scholarly research pertaining to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. His books include Beyond Chutzpah: the Misuse of Anti-Semitism and Abuse of History (2005); The Holocaust Industry (2000); A Nation on Trial (1998); Image and Reality of the Israel-Palestine Conflict (1995).

Finkelstein's mother, Maryla Finkelstein, survived the Warsaw Ghetto, Majdanek concentration camp, as well as two slave-labor camps. His father, Zacharias Finkelstein, was a survivor of both the Warsaw Ghetto and Auschwitz concentration camp.

Wednesday, April 18
7:30 P.M.

Social Behavioral Science Auditorium
University of Utah

Directions & Parking: Tall building north-east of Rice-Eccles Stadium and immediately south of Marriott Library. From South Campus Drive turn north onto 1500 East & proceed one block to parking lot west of Marriott Library.

Lecture is free, public welcome!

Utahns for a Just Peace in the Holy Land 435-783-4411 www.jphl.org
Campus Committee for Peace and Justice 801-364-0667